

Reflect

1. My idea of fake news did not change after reading the text
2. I have most likely been a victim of fake news, but I can not remember to which story or why
3. One way we can avoid falling for fake news stories is to always check multiple sources
4. In my opinion, the biggest problem that fake news poses is that people are provided with false information that may change their opinion about important situations.

Practice

1. – He did not believe a word of what he read in the sensational story that he found
 - The Chinese government wants to censor the internet within their country
 - The story of the movie star who married her butler seemed hilarious but was in fact close to the truth, because it was the bodyguard that became her husband
 - It is important to keep a clear head in a difficult situation
2. ...
3. ...

Understand & reflect

1. People who are 65 years old or more relies more on the tv as their source of news
2. The age group 18-29 relies on the tv the least as their source of news
3. The most popular news source for the youngest age group is social media
4. The advantages of getting your news from tv, radio and newspapers is that

Compare